About ThinkHQ Public Affairs

ThinkHQ is an Alberta-based government and public affairs strategy consultancy.

We are the only firm in Alberta to offer clients in-house, integrated public-opinion research to help define and refine their strategy.

We help organizations understand the political, policy and public environment today, and to “test drive” their assumptions, approach and communications before they begin.

ThinkHQ is a proud partner of Integrated Strategic Partners (ISP) – Western Canada’s premier full-service government relations and strategic communications firm.

As part of ISP, we bring our specialized expertise to a fully integrated team, delivering strategic, results-driven solutions. Together, we provide a holistic approach that combines insight, innovation, and influence to drive meaningful impact and results for our clients.
